Come On, America!

“Come together for what is right, not for might.”

- Dave’s vision for America is to bring more communities and people together.
 - What can you do in your local community to be more involved while social distancing?
 - Make a goal to remain social with your friends and family even if you aren’t physically seeing them.
 - Challenge yourself to connect with someone new over social media this week.
 - What can we learn from collaborating vs competition?

- Dave wants to add enthusiasm and spirit back into American business by forming partnerships with other local business leaders.
 - How can you continue to support local business during the challenges America is currently facing?
